"The Old Bridge—North Elkhorn."

How many times it has sheltered me—
From sudden tempest, rain, and drifting snow—
But this was years ago—
And I a school girl, happy as could be.

Arrested in the stream, o'er which it hung,
I caught the tiny minnow in my hand,
And built play houses in the shifting sand
At dinner time, before the school bell rung.

Upon the bridge a sweet old story spoken,
A tender friendship missed, a friendship won.
Kentucky never lost a nother-hearted son
In he for whom I keep a little token.

What the bridge is gone, like old familiar faces
Who smile upon us once, and pass away;
True to the human kind it had its day,
A reality of life, its homely grace.

Woe on dear Elkhorn, let the rippling water
Merrily sing the song of "days long since."
The "new bridge" never on the "old" outshine
Tender recollections of the absent daughter.

Bereave the memory of thee, murmuring river!
As thou wert yesterday, thou art to-day.
Beyond the bridge my soul shall wing its way;
But thou the earnest of the grand forever.
August, 28th, 1891. N. S. C.

Startling Facts.

The American people are rapidly becoming a race of nervous wrecks, and the following suggests the best remedy: Alphonso Hempling, of Butler, Pa., swears that his son was speechless from St. Vitus' dance. Dr. Miles' great Restorative Nervine cured him. Mrs. J. R. Miller, of Valparaiso, and J. D. Taylor, of Logansport, Ind., each gained 30 pounds from taking it. Mrs. H. A. Gardner, of Vintola, Ind., was cured of 40 or 50 convulsions a day, and much headache, dizziness, backache and nervous prostration by one bottle. Trial bottles, and fine book of marvelous cures free at J. W. Gayle's, who recommends and guarantees this unequalled remedy.

Business Men,

From close application and too little exercise, are especially liable to constipation—clogging up nature's great sewers—producing headache, biliousness, sluggish circulation and general derangement of the vital organs. A regular movement of the bowels is indispensable to perfect health; to neglect, is to imperil it. If constipated, Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will cure you. No interference with business. Very modest expense. Mild in action, yet powerful in cleansing, regulating the stomach, liver and bowels, curing constipation, headache and kindred ailments.

Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. MISSING.

Mr. Allen Correns Supposed to Have Walked Overboard

From the City of Clarksville While Asleep.

Mr. Allen Correns, who lived upon the farm of Mr. C. T. Egbert, three miles below the city, on the river, went down to Carrington on business last week, and on Friday evening boarded the Steamer City of Clarksville to return. He paid his passage, retired for the night and was not seen on the boat afterwards. The next morning his coat and vest were found in his bunk but he was nowhere to be found. Sixty-two dollars was found in the pocket of his vest, and the supposition is that he arose in the night, walked or fell off the boat into the river and was drowned.

Mr. Correns was a Scotchman of about fifty years of age, a member of the Presbyterian Church and an excellent citizen. He leaves a wife, two sons and a daughter, all grown, to mourn his untimely death.

LATER—Mr. Correns' body was found floating in the river near Carrington and buried at that place. His family will have the remains disinterred and brought here for burial.

Cutting at the Pen.

About half past nine o'clock Sunday morning a fight occurred in the Penitentiary in which one convict had his skull crushed, another was dangerously stabbed and was also cut on the hand and a third badly beaten up. At the time above mentioned a convict by the name of William Bellmeyer, sent up for fifteen years for rape, from Louisville, accused Ed. Lucas, also sent up from Louisville for life upon the charge of murder, of having told another negro something about him, which Lucas denied, when Bellmeyer went for a razor he had concealed somewhere in the walls, returned and attacked Lucas, who drew a short putty knife he had ground down to a sharp point, and stabbed Bellmeyer in the abdomen, the knife going in up to the handle. In attempting to cut Lucas with the razor Bellmeyer inflicted a serious wound upon his own hand. Another convict by the name of Bill Johnson interfered to stop the fuss when Bellmeyer struck him on the head with a brick, crushing his skull. Bellmeyer then knocked Lucas down and stamped him in the face and about the head in a terrible manner. The row occurred while the convicts were lounging about the yard and was only stopped when the guards arrived.

Johnson's head was trepanned by Drs. Tobin and Williams, several pieces of skull removed and he, Bellmeyer and Lucas are all lying in the hospital in a critical condition. Johnson was thought to be dying yesterday.

Rather Cheeky.

When a merchant doing business in this city, and is dependent upon this community for his custom, goes to Louisville or Cincinnati, gets a lot of circulars, and the envelopes in which to send them out, printed, and then sends some of the same to the printers employed in this city, soliciting their trade, it strikes us that the transaction is strongly tinged with gall. If such parties wish the trade of this community they should certainly be willing to encourage other branches of business by trading at home. Printers have to live and if you want their money for your goods you should give them a chance to earn it when you have work in their line. But if you prefer having your work done by printers in Louisville or Cincinnati you should go to one or the other of those places to dispose of your merchandise. There are two offices in this city, and their prices for job work are certainly as reasonable as those charged by the merchants of the city for their wares, the work as neatly executed as in city offices, and if you don't care to deal with one to go to the other, but don't run away from home to save a few cents, for in so doing you lose dollars in the trade of the men you drive away from you.

New Fire Chief.

Mr. J. Russell Williams has been appointed by the Mayor as Chief of the Fire Department to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Richard Ferguson.

Dr. W. I. Kelley,

Of Cincinnati, will make his usual monthly visit to this city on Friday next, September 18th. He can be found in his usual quarters at the Capital Hotel on that day. Bear it in mind.

Gone to the Home.

Uncle Charley Shea left Tuesday for Louisville to become an inmate of the Soldiers' Home near that city. The old veteran had become too infirm to make a living at his trade of bricklayer, and will spend the rest of his days in that institution.

New Band Leader.

Dr. J. Q. A. Stewart has arranged with Prof. Ed. Nunn, of Madison, Ind., to teach the Aylem band, two lessons per week will be given. Prof. Nunn is not a stranger here, having played with Davis' string band. He is an accomplished musician, and it is needless to say that the band will profit by his instructions.

Couldn't Take It.

Col. Dave Moore was in town Monday and went around to Buckley's to take the job of elevator boy, to which position he was recently elected, but the first trip up he stalled the machine, and concluded to throw up the job, go home and see if he couldn't assist Will Bryant in getting his cannon to go off. He said the latter was a pretty hard job but he thought it would prove easier than monkeying with a patent lift.

Sudden Death.

Mr. Robert T. Penn, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of Peak's Mill precinct, died suddenly while sitting on the porch at his home on Monday. He was seventy years of age and was remarkably active for one of his years. He was in town Tuesday of last week apparently in perfect health, and remained in equally as good health until attacked with the fatal malady—heart failure. He was the father of Mr. Josiah Penn, of this city.

Change of Date Cincinnati Excursions.

The excursion to Cincinnati announced for Sept. 10th has been postponed until the 12th to give everyone interested an opportunity to witness the laying of the corner stone I. O. O. F. Temple, and the grand parade. In addition to this, you can see the Zoological Gardens in the morning, the Latonia races in the afternoon, and Last Days of Pompeii at night. Special train returning leaves the Grand Central depot at 10:15 p. m. and the gates of the exhibition grounds after the performance and fireworks. Low Excursion rates from all points between Junction City and Dixon.

Another Runaway.

Sunday afternoon Messrs. Ed. Claassen and E. C. Cryer were out driving in the former's buggy and when coming down the Arsenal Hill the horse became frightened and started to run. Mr. Cryer jumped out before he got well started and bruised his hip, but Mr. Claassen held on until the horse began to kick, when he too jumped and fell against the buggy of Mr. Clarence Shaw, who was driving down the hill at the time, tumbled the back of his head badly out. Mr. Ed. Mahan, of Indiana, who was in the buggy with Mr. Shaw, seeing the vehicles were going to collide, also jumped out, receiving several ugly cuts on his forehead and nose by falling upon a rock. Mr. Claassen's horse kicked the buggy to pieces and ran down Main street as far as the Capital Hotel, where he was stopped.

Death of Robert Soper.

Robert Soper, a well-known resident and pioneer of Denver, died at the family residence at 8:15 Tuesday evening after an illness of several months. Since coming to Denver, some eight or ten years ago, Mr. Soper has been retired from active business, but was everywhere recognized as a public spirited citizen and a most estimable man.

He was 58 years of age and leaves a wife and three daughters, Mrs. Lela Penson, Mrs. George W. Middleton and Mrs. Robert Stetson, to mourn his loss. The funeral will be held from the family residence at Eleventh and Logan avenues—Denver, Colorado Sun.

Mr. Soper was a brother-in-law of Mr. A. G. Morris of this city, and a gentleman every inch of him. When as a boy we carried the mail from this city to Paris, from 1862 to 84, he was keeping a country store at Centerville, in Bourbon county, and was also postmaster. It was then that we learned to know and appreciate his worth as a man and a gentleman, and were indebted to him for many acts of kindness. Later he removed to Paris and engaged in business, and afterwards to Georgetown, from which place he went to Denver, where he prospered, and left a handsome property to his family. Peace to his ashes.

Their liabilities are thought to be about $40,000, with assets nominally the same. They are indebted to the banks of this city in the following sums:

Bought a Home.

Mr. Henry Ahler has purchased from Mr. Robert Choate his house and lot at the corner of Todd and Murray streets, for twenty-two hundred dollars, and on Monday took possession and moved in. Mr. Choate has temporarily removed his family to Louisville, where he has contracts to build several houses.

A Cure for Paralysis.

Frank Cornelius, of Purcell, Ind. Ter., says: "I induced Mr. Pinson, whose wife had paralysis in the face, to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. To their great surprise, before the bottle had all been used she was a great deal better. Her face had been drawn to one side; but the Pain Balm relieved all pain and soreness, and the mouth assumed its natural shape." It is also a certain cure for rheumatism, lame back, sprains, swellings and lameness. 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. Gayle. 52-1m.

Look Out for It.

Col. Diamond Bentley, of Woodford, "the most gifted poet of the world," has constructed a "pome" which will shortly be turned loose on the public, and we have contracted to publish it in the Roundabout. To be fully appreciated one should hear the Colonel recite it. He gave us a sample of it on Monday, and it's a lulu. It is entitled "The Hired Farm Hand."

Change in the School.

The School Board met on Tuesday evening and Mrs. S. T. Rolly tendered her resignation as one of the teachers in the white school, which was accepted and Miss Lou B. Cromwell was elected to fill the vacancy. A number of ballots were taken for janitor, but no choice was made and the board adjourned to meet again last night.

A Frankfort Heroine.

It is a common thing for Frankforters to distinguish themselves when they leave home, but the following, clipped from the "Tattler" column of the Louisville Times of Monday, proves that Frankfort girls are also made of the right sort of stuff, and when circumstance require they can rise to the emergency:

The friends of Mrs. Robert Christie, wife of Rev. Dr. Christie, for many years pastor of the College-street Presbyterian church of this city, now of St. Paul, Minn., will not be altogether surprised, I believe, to learn that she has developed into a full-fledged heroine. The circumstances have just come to light through the medium of a good friend in this city, to whom the story was related by Rev. Dr. Christie.

Dr. Christie and his family have been summering at Cottage Park, White Bear Lake, Minn., and the tragedy which Mrs. Christie averted occurred there last Tuesday. It is the custom for some members of the family to row across the lake daily to meet the other members returning from the city. On the day mentioned Mrs. Christie was returning from town, and was met at the beach by her housemaid, who had rowed over alone. When they were about half way across the lake, which was very rough, Mrs. Christie noticed a sail boat tipping about perilously at some distance from them, and called the girl's attention to the fact. They were too far away to see by whom the boat was managed, but as they watched it suddenly capsized and two men were precipitated into the churning waves. Mrs. Christie instantly instructed the girl to pull for the wrecked boat, and here they discovered two men clinging to the overturned sail boat with only their heads out of water.

After considerable difficulty both men succeeded in getting aboard the Christie boat without upsetting it, and one of them took the oars while the other possessed himself of the ropes of their own boat and made them fast to the rescuing craft. Thus they started for the beach, and on their way met a gentleman friend in a sail boat who, when told of the accident, relieved Mrs. Christie of further trouble by taking the strangers and their boat into land. The two women then rowed home across the lake, not even learning the names of the men whose lives they had saved.

Mrs. Christie is a member of the Crittenden and Clay families of Kentucky, and her bravery in rescuing the strangers in rough weather and in the face of the danger she ran in having her own boat upset, is a credit to her Kentucky blood.

Mrs. Christie was formerly Miss Pauline Watson, and is a sister of Cashier H. H. Watson, of the Deposit Bank.

Capt. W. A. Abbott, who has long been with Messrs. Percival & Hutton, Real Estate and Insurance Brokers, Des Moines, Iowa, and is one of the best known and most respected business men in that city, says: "I can testify to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Having used it in my family for the past eight years, I can safely say it has no equal for either colds or croup." 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. Gayle. 52-1m.

"Under a Cloud."

[From the Louisville Times, September 5th.]
To the Editor of the Times-Sir: This was the head line of some correspondence from Frankfort some days since. I am, so far as being out of employment and money and bread and meat are concerned, I was an old merchant for twenty-five years before and since the war, and was book-keeper and clerk at the auditor's office and the penitentiary for nineteen years. I want something to do at once. Can yet give good references to ability if not for honesty. My friends teased me to get the and dispel this imaginary cloud which I fall to see? If so, address me at Frankfort, Ky., and help an old Confederate soldier, sixty-eight years, who did beg his bread after Gen. Lee surrendered, and don't want to do so. Give the old man a chance and publish this for him.
L. D. HOLLOWAY.

Black's Elevator.

Mr. Stephen Black has just completed a new and improved elevator at his coal yard, which will facilitate the handling of the black diamonds, and placing them upon the yard in much better condition. By putting up this new labor-saving apparatus on his coal yard Mr. Black has greatly enhanced the value of the property.

"Praise be to him, whose wondrous skill Has conquered every human ill— And now alone, as victor, stands The Golden compound of his hands." So spake a man, with tribute crowned, Of Dr. Pierce's "world-renowned," Whose "Medical Discovery" Had vanquished pain and set him free.

One can but speak in praise of a remedy so successful and unflinching as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Acting promptly and thoroughly, it cures, permanent, cures, consumption, in its early stages, scrofula, liver and kidney disorders, and all blood diseases, are within the field of its unbounded success.

Come and See Us.

We have closed the store on Market street and transferred all our business to the store on the corner of Main and Lewis streets, opposite Farmer's Bank. We invite all of our old customers to call on us at our new store, where we will be glad to wait on them as usual.

A Change in the Weather.

The person who can predict a change in the weather by means of his aches and pains may be very interesting to his neighbors as a walking barometer, but the position he occupies is not an enviable one. He needs a course of S. S. S. to make his bones and his joints weatherproof. Rheumatism cannot stand before the attacks of this wonderful blood purifier. There is no other remedy that has proven so efficacious in curing the disease as S. S. S. The testimonials to this effect cannot be gained. They speak for themselves. To test the matter would not be a costly experiment to the sufferer, and it is an experiment that will surely bring relief.

Going to Louisville.

The Ethel Tobacco Company, who have been operating in the Finzel block, South Frankfort, for the past two years, are removing their plant to Louisville.

Made an Assignment.

Messrs. Aubrey & Williams, doing a large fresh meat and grocery business at the corner of Second and Bridge streets, made an assignment Monday evening to Mr. G. H. Sargent for the benefit of their creditors. They had been doing a great deal of business on credit and were unable to collect the amounts due them in time to meet their indebtedness.

HUDSON, HUMPHRES & CASSELL!

How to Succeed.

This is the great problem of life which few satisfactorily solve. Some fail because of poor health, others want of luck, but the majority from deficient grit—want of nerve. They are nervous, indecisive, changeable, easily get the blues and "take the spirits down to keep the spirits up," thus wasting money, time, opportunity and nerve force. There is nothing like the Restorative Nerve, discovered by the great specialist, Dr. Miles, to cure all nervous diseases, as headache, the blues, nervous prostration, sleeplessness, neuralgia, St. Vitus' dance, fits, and hysteria. Trial bottles and fine book of testimonials free at J. W. Gayle's.

The community was greatly shocked on hearing the sudden death of Mr. Robert Penn, of heart failure, which occurred Monday morning at his residence near this place. Seemingly in robust health, his demise was unexpected, as it was sudden. In his death Peak's Mill has lost one of its most honored and oldest citizens, having been born and lived at this place nearly all his life. No man was more thoroughly known or more liked. He was in his 70th year. He was a conscientious Christian, having been a member of Bethel Baptist Church for a number of years. His funeral took place from his residence Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. W. C. Taylor, of Frankfort, officiating. His remains were followed by a large concourse of relatives and friends to the cemetery at Frankfort, where they were interred. To the bereaved ones we tender our sincerest sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Tracott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a fever.
